

MUSIC MAKES THE WORLD BUY ROUNDS

2019's most-played jukebox tracks & artists in the UK

Jukeboxes across the UK have been playing an eclectic mix of old and new tracks this year, from both established artists and brand new faces on the scene (did anyone even know who Lewis Capaldi was this time last year?!).

The latest results have just landed, so take a look at our infographic to find out what your customers want to listen to, and how the Angelina jukebox could just be music to your venue's ears

TOP 5 MOST POPULAR JUKEBOX TRACKS 2019

5th Place
Lil Nas X
– Old Town Road

Fun fact:
Broke Mariah Carey's 23-year-old record for most weeks at No 1

Why so popular?
Unusual hip-hop/country hybrid

4th Place
Ava Max
– Sweet But Psycho

Fun fact:
According to Max, the beat of the song was made up in just five minutes

Why so popular?
It's an upbeat, catchy earworm

3rd Place
Calvin Harris with Rag 'n' Bone Man – Giant

Fun fact:
Rag 'n' Bone man wrote this song four years ago for his parents

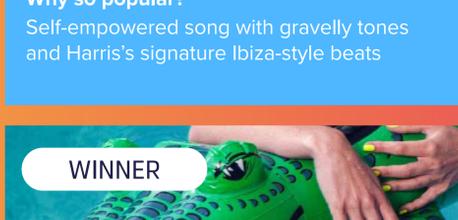

Why so popular?
Self-empowered song with gravelly tones and Harris's signature Ibiza-style beats

2nd Place
Lewis Capaldi
– Someone You Loved

Fun fact:
It took Capaldi six months to write this song!

Why so popular?
Full of emotion and heartbreak, this is one to sway your lighters to

WINNER

1st Place
George Ezra – Shotgun

Fun fact:
Ezra wrote the song after spending time on top of Montjuïc in Barcelona

Why so popular?
This catchy, breezy pop song is the ultimate summer anthem

The old classics remain popular too!

The Gambler by Kenny Rogers came 7th.
Its popularity furthered this year with the Rugby World Cup - the track became an unofficial England rugby anthem and was featured in the Soundnet & TouchTunes' special Rugby World Cup jukebox category.

“The Gambler by Kenny Rogers came 7th”

Also in the top 20...

Thunderstruck by AC/DC

Hotel California by Eagles

TOP 5 MOST POPULAR JUKEBOX ARTISTS 2019

5th place
George Ezra

4th place
Ed Sheeran

3rd place
Elvis Presley

RUNNER UP

2nd place
Queen

The Bohemian Rhapsody movie made Queen more popular than ever this year!

WINNER

1st place
Oasis

Bolstered by the Gallagher brothers both releasing solo content this year. The nation realised that, after all, they're our wonderwall...

Key takeaways:

▶ British male singer-songwriters continue to shine, with strong showings from Ed Sheeran, George Ezra and Lewis Capaldi

▶ Although never given as much attention in the media as their popularity should warrant, UB40 have shown themselves to be a more popular British band than The Beatles or The Rolling Stones – they were the 6th top-played jukebox artist this year.

▶ Oldies are goodies: also featured on the top-played jukebox artists list were Fleetwood Mac, Rod Stewart, David Bowie, Madness and Guns N' Roses

“UB40 have shown themselves to be a more popular British band than The Beatles or The Rolling Stones”

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR YOUR VENUE?

Although the majority of tracks played this year were latest releases, it's clear to see that back catalog remain popular.

The Angelina jukebox from TouchTunes has access to 1 million songs – after all, a modern digital jukebox doesn't just mean playing the Top 10 charts on repeat. Here's a rundown of how your venue could benefit from the Angelina jukebox...

Never out of tune

The Angelina jukebox from TouchTunes creates the musical atmosphere your customers want to hear.

Old fashioned is a cocktail, not a jukebox

The new TouchTunes jukebox is the modern jukebox for today's best pubs and bars looking for something unique. It's developed so that the user experience is totally up to date and is even easier to use than Spotify or Apple Music!

Music to your ears

Get the music right and your customers will be more likely to dwell in your venue and spend at your bar.

You set the mood, they choose the tune

Did any of the findings from this year surprise you? TouchTunes jukeboxes are profiled to fit your venue.

Contact us now for a free analysis of what music profile might work best for your venue

Phone

0207 644 8888

Email

info@touchtunes.co.uk

Web

touchtunes.co.uk